

Admission requirements

On this page you will find important details of the application process (such as deadlines, admission requirements, required documents and application assessment) for the master's programme in Globalisation and Development Studies for academic year 2024-2025.

For the master's programme in Globalisation and Development Studies enrolment is based on your quality and suitability. For this your motivation, previous education and your (professional) experience are important.

The information on this page is for students who would like to start in academic year 2024-2025.

Please click here to look into the admission requirements for academic year 2023-2024.

Important deadlines for application for this study programme

This master's programme starts in September.

The deadlines below are applicable for applying for a start in September 2024.

When you want to apply or are applying for this study programme, it is important that you inform yourself of the deadlines that you need to meet. The important deadlines when applying for this study programme are provided in the table below.

Note: if you are viewing this webpage on your phone, we recommend that you use landscape mode.

Date	What you need to know about this date
1 October 2023	Studielink is open for applications for the academic year 2024-2025
Up to and including 1 May 2024 23:59 CET	Deadline for completing the entire application process for non-EU/EEA applicants (these applicants require a visa or residence permit)
Up to and including 1 June 2024, 23:59 CET	Deadline for completing the entire application process for applicants from the EU/EEA or Switzerland

Please note:

Find out if you can apply for a scholarship or financial aid. Deadlines for scholarships are often earlier than the dates mentioned above.

In Studielink, you need to choose the starting moment. Please make sure to select September 2024 in the pulldown-menu, so that you will apply for the start of the next academic year.

General requirements: previous education

The admission requirements for academic year 2024/25 for the master's programme in Globalisation and Development Studies depend on your previous education. Please check below which requirements apply to you.

Graduates from the UM bachelor's programme Global Studies applying for a continuing Master

You can apply via Studielink before 1 August 2024 for the continuing master's programme only with a BSc Global Studies diploma obtained at Maastricht University, and are guaranteed a place.

Please upload a valid ID and a recent passport picture. Please note: you have to graduate before 1 September 2024. You do not need to write a letter of motivation.

Graduates from a relevant university bachelor's programme

You qualify for admission if you have a bachelor's degree in the field of Social Sciences: Anthropology, Sociology, Geography, Economics, Political science, International Relations, Development Studies, European Studies, Liberal Arts and Sciences. Or Humanities: History, Philosophy, Arts and Culture, or an equivalent level of relevant education or working experience.

Furthermore, you need:

- a basis in globalisation and development issues. For example, a minor in Globalisation & Development from FASoS, or similar undergraduate courses
- a basis in social science research methods, covering both qualitative and quantitative methods
- good grades in your prior education

Graduates from another bachelor's programme

Excellent students with a relevant university of applied sciences degree (e.g. HBO/Hochschule) or an academic BA or BSc Bachelor in a field that does not grant direct admission into this programme, can follow a pre-master year. Once successfully completed, this will then guarantee you access to the master's programme Globalisation and Development Studies.

Read more about the pre-master year

Additional requirements

Language requirements for English-language master's programmes

As English is the language of instruction in this study programme, it is essential that your English language skills are good enough for you to undertake intensive and challenging academic courses that are taught and examined in English.

Answer the questions below to find out if you meet the language requirements.

Do you hold a bachelor's or master's degree in which English was the sole language of instruction?

YesNoUndo

Applicants who received their previous education in a non-EU/EEA country (handling fee)

Applicants for this study programme who received their previous education in a non-EU/EEA country will have to pay a handling fee. More information on this handling fee and how to arrange this payment can be found on the Handling fee page.

Documents required for application process

During the application process for this study programme you will need to complete a number of tasks for which you will often have to upload documents. The list below gives you an insight into what documents you will (and might) need to prepare.

Required documents for all applicants to this study programme

- A recent passport picture
The passport picture must satisfy certain requirements.
- A copy of your passport or your EU/EEA identity card
Make a copy of the page with your personal details. Save this copy as 'passport copy' and not as 'passport picture'. Your passport must be valid on 1 September 2024.
- A copy of your most recent certified grades transcript and a copy of your certified bachelor's or master's diploma if you have obtained it
If you have not graduated yet, you can upload your official grades transcript from your bachelor's or master's programme.
- Your Curriculum Vitae
Please list your education, relevant extracurricular activities and internship/professional experience.
- A motivation letter
Please provide good arguments about why you want to do this master's programme at Maastricht University and why you believe that you can successfully complete the programme. The motivation letter should be between 800 – 1,200 words.
- A writing sample
An independently written research paper of at least 2,000 words (excluding the footnotes and reference list). It is preferable - but not mandatory - that its topic is related to globalisation and/or development. You can use a paper from earlier studies or another occasion. The submitted work should be written in English.

As a UM student it is not necessary to upload the above-mentioned documents in the MyApplication portal. However, if your passport will not be valid on 1 September 2024, then you still have to upload a copy of your passport.*

Documents that might be required depending on your (academic) background

- Document(s) that demonstrate your proficiency in English
Answer the questions concerning language requirements 'Language requirements for English-language master's programmes' on this webpage to find out if you need to provide additional documentation. The outcome of your answers will indicate which documents you can use to prove your proficiency.

How do we assess your application?

When you want to apply or are applying for this study programme, it is useful to know how we assess your application. You can find more information about this here.

All complete application files (including English Language test) will be assessed by the Board of Admissions. They will try to respond within four weeks.

In case the Board of Admissions is not entirely convinced about your academic writing skills we may send you an academic writing assessment.

Based on the documents you have submitted and the admission procedure for your chosen programme, the UM decides on whether to admit you. Once UM has made a decision on your admissibility, you will be informed about this by email.