- CIEL students have to take 30 credits. CIEL students staying for one semester will have to enroll in two courses in one period, three in the other.
- Mind that courses may have prerequisites. You can find prerequisites in the course description on the website.
- At the time of registering for Law of the Sea, you need to have completed successfully the course Public International Law (IER4021), and preferably also International Dispute Settlement (IER4008). If you think you may qualify for the Law of the Sea course without having taken the Public International Law course, or if you have taken a similar course elsewhere, please contact the coordinator at Liesbeth.ijnzaad@maastrichtuniversity.nl to discuss acceptance to the Law of the Sea course
