

Maastricht University Faculty of Law
Area of Research	Transitional justice
Affiliated Research Institute	Maastricht Centre for Human Rights
Team of possible Promotor(s) and reference publications	Fabián Raimondo
Additional Supervisor(s)	Dr Roland Moerland Dr Gustavo Arosemena Dr Jennifer Sallin Dr Andrea Broderick
Faculty Research Program(s) (more options possible)	X Global Justice o Institutional Transformations o Globalising Markets o Cross-border Cooperation and Mobility o Law and Technology
Applicable Chinese Government Sectors for Talent Development	Humanity and Social Sciences
Proposed list of topics (non exhaustive)	Transitional justice and domestic or international prosecutions Transitional justice and truth commissions or other truth-seeking processes Transitional justice and reparations for victims of serious human rights violations Transitional justice and institutional reform (vetting, lustration, etc.)
Methodology	Approach: qualitative Data collection methods: gathering documents relating to the research questions and asking questions of the documents; doctrinal research; participant or non-participant observation of a situation or context; semi-structured/unstructured interviews which enable research participants to talk about a set of questions or topics in their own way.