

Personal profile page

What a good profile page does look like

Exists at least out of the following information:

1. Your profile image
2. First name, surname + contact details
3. Short bio + your expertise
4. Research - PURE publications overview
5. Work for third parties

Your profile image

1.

Naturally, you are free to refuse the use of your image. If this is the case we could provide you with an alternative.

Alternative image

Moerland, A. (Anke)
International and European Law, Faculty of Law
✉ anke.moerland@maastrichtuniversity.nl
Full profile

2.

First name, surname + contact details
Contact details: e-mail address, phone number + room number. Names may appear in any order.

Prof Dr Bruno de Witte (B.E.F.M.)

Professional career history

Bruno de Witte is professor of European Union law at Maastricht University, and part-time professor at the European University Institute (EUI) in Florence. He is co-director of the Maastricht Centre for European Law. Previously, from 2000 to February 2010, he was professor of EU law at the EUI, and co-director of the Academy of European Law there, and before that, from 1989 to 2000, he was professor at Maastricht University. He studied law at the University of Leuven and the College of Europe and obtained a doctorate at the European University Institute in 1985, on 'The Protection of Linguistic Diversity through Fundamental Rights'.

3.

Short bio

A. Moerland >
> Research
Education >
Work for third parties >

Publications

Core publications:

- Moerland, A., & Brauneis, R. (2018). Monopolizing Matrazten in Malaga: The mistreatment of distinctiveness of foreign terms in EU and US trademark law. Gewerblicher Rechtsschutz und Urheberrecht. Internationaler Teil, 1118-1128.
More information about this publication
- Weinhardt, C., & Moerland, A. (2018). (Mis)Perceptions in Two- and Three-Level Games: Detachment in economic partnership agreement negotiations. Journal of Common Market Studies, 56(3), 576-593. <https://doi.org/10.1111/jcms.12642>
More information about this publication
- Moerland, A. (2017). Developing countries have a say? Bilateral and regional intellectual property negotiations with the EU. IIC - International Review of Intellectual Property and Competition Law, 48(7), 760-783. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s40319-017-0634-6>
More information about this publication

4.

Research - PURE publications overview

> Staff
M. Claes >
Research >
> Work for third parties

Monica Claes (M.)

Work for third parties

- Member editorial board at Tijdschrift voor Constitutioneel Recht (TvCR)
- Editor in chief at European Constitutional Law Review (EuConst)
- Alumna at De Jonge Akademie (DJA)

5.

Work for third parties

Dr Anke Moerland (A.)
Anke Moerland is Assistant Professor of Intellectual Property Law in the European and International Law Department, Maastricht University. She holds a PhD on intellectual property protection in EU bilateral trade agreements from Maastricht University, the first in her field, a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from Technical University Dresden, Germany (2005), a Bachelor's degree from Maastricht University (2011) and a PhD degree from Maastricht University (2006).
Anke has published on IP law and policy. Since 2018, she holds a visiting professorship at Queen Mary University of London on Intellectual Property Law, Governance and Art. Since 2017, Anke coordinates the EPRP Innovation Society, a post-2020 grant under the Marie Skłodowska Curie Action (7th EU FP).
Expertise:
International Property Law
International Trade Law
International Relations of the European Union
International Relations
Career history

Yu Zhao (Y.)
Yu Zhao started his PhD project in 2013 at the Maastricht Institute for Transnational Legal Research (MINTRO), Faculty of Law, Maastricht University. He received master's degree in European and International Law from China EU School of Law, University of Hamburg in 2013. He is interested in corporate law and law and economics. His doctoral thesis discusses to what extent private equity investment should be regulated from a law and economics perspective. He is a qualified Chinese lawyer.
Expertise:
Law & Economics
Corporate Law
Corporate Finance
Private Equity Fund Investment

B. Kemp
Bastiaan Kemp is a Research Fellow at the Institute for Corporate Law, Governance and Innovation Policies. His research is focused on corporate litigation, corporate governance and European company law. Bastiaan Kemp graduated cum laude in 2013 from Maastricht University, where he focused on corporate and commercial law. During his study he was a student-assistant at the institute. In 2015 he obtained his PhD and became part-time assistant professor. The title of his thesis is: Shareholder responsibility: The position and role of the shareholder and the shareholders meeting. Bastiaan also works as a corporate lawyer at Loyens & Loeff, Amsterdam.
Expertise:
Company Law
Corporate Governance
Takeovers
Securities law

Claire Boost (C.M.H.)
Claire M. H. Boost is a PhD Candidate within the Faculty of Law at Maastricht University, researching the legitimisation strategies developed and implemented by the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. Alongside her research, Claire teaches two courses: International Criminal Law and 'Atrocity Triangle' (the supranational criminology of gross human rights violations), and supervises bachelor and master theses on topics related to international criminal law, transitional justice, supranational criminology and the criminal justice system in Rwanda. Furthermore, Claire serves on the Board of the Maastricht Centre for Human Rights and is a member of the Netherlands Network for Human Rights Researchers.
Expertise:
Supranational Criminology
International Criminal Law
Transitional Justice
Professional career history

Personal profile page examples with a short bio and expertise