Parking

Directly past the hotel is a parking garage from Q-Park. The entrance of this garage is below the cafe across the square which is directly across the hotel.

At the entrance you insert the following access code: 1992

The parking garage gate will be opened as soon as a white access card is dispersed from the machine, after access code is entered. This white access card should be kept well.

If the private area in the garage is full, guests may also use the public parking area. The garage is equipped with direct access to the hotel.

At departure the guest settles the parking bill at the reception and will receive a red drive-out card. At driving out you insert first the red card in and directly after you insert the white card in the machine.

The costs for a day card are " 18,50.
