Inaugural lecture Prof.dr. Liesbeth Kester

‘Positive Educational Design: Competence and Wellbeing in the Health Professions Education’

Dear colleagues,

On October 16, at 16.30, the inaugural lecture of Prof.dr. Liesbeth Kester will take place. The title of her lecture will be ‘Positive Educational Design: Competence and Wellbeing in the Health Professions Education’ (‘Positief Onderwijsontwerp: Competentie en Welzijn in de Gezondheidszorgopleidingen’).

Prior to the lecture, a SHE symposium will take place from 13:00-15:00 (walk-in for lunch starting from 12:00 onwards), entitled ‘Grow and Blossom: Design Challenges in Academic, Simulation and Workplace Learning’ (‘Groeien en Bloeien: Ontwerp Uitdagingen in Academisch, Simulatie en Werkplek Leren’).

An official invitation with the final schedule, including locations and details, will follow shortly.
