

Tessa Scheller

Tessa Scheller is a research fellow at the University of Bonn and a member of the research project “Restatement of Restitution Rules” led by Prof. Matthias Weller. In parallel to this role, she pursues a Ph.D. in law under the supervision of Prof. Weller, focusing on the decision-making practice of the Dutch Restitution Committee. Tessa is a fully qualified lawyer, who holds a law degree from the University of Freiburg and has spent her legal traineeship in Berlin inter alia at the Prussian Cultural Heritage Foundation, the Cultural Foundation of the Federal States and a law firm specialized in art law. In addition, Tessa holds an M.Sc. in art history from the University of Glasgow. As part of the masters’ program ‘Collecting and Provenance in an International Context’, she also worked as an intern for the Smithsonian Provenance Research Initiative at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C.