Admission requirements

On this page you will find important details of the application process (such as deadlines, admission requirements, required documents and application assessment) for the bachelor's programme in Psychology for academic year 2022-2023.

The bachelor's programme in Psychology is a fixus programme with selection by the educational institution. This means that you go through a selection process after applying. Not everybody who is admissible will also receive placement. The UM performs a pre-selection, afterwards Studielink takes care of the allocation procedure. Only a limited number of students can be admitted each year, 500 for the academic year 2022/23.

For the academic year 2022/23 all available places will be allocated by means of selection.

General requirements: prior qualifications

The admission requirements for academic year 2022/2023 for the bachelor's programme in Psychology depend on your prior qualifications. Please check below which requirements apply to you.

Prospective students with a Dutch diploma

If you possess one of the diplomas stated below then, in principle, you are directly admissible.

- VWO diploma: all profiles
- All HBO propaedeutic diplomas

Prospective students with a non-Dutch diploma

If you have a non-Dutch diploma that is equivalent to the Dutch VWO diploma you are, in principle, admissible to this programme. Check if this applies for your diploma.

List of diplomas equivalent to the Dutch VWO diploma 2022/23

Prospective students who do not meet the requirements

Entrance exam, Colloquium Doctum

If you do not have the required diploma, or do not meet the additional requirements, you can still qualify by passing an entrance exam (the so called Colloquium Doctum).

If you pass the Colloquium Doctum and submit the requested proof of language proficiency, you will qualify for enrolment in the bachelor's programme.

Read more about the Colloquium Doctum

Prospective students who started a Bachelor in Psychology at another university

Prospective students who started a bachelor's programme in Psychology at another university and who wish to transfer to the Faculty of Psychology and Neuroscience at Maastricht University must follow the same admissions procedure as all other prospective students (including the selection procedure). Note that you must apply as a first-year student in Studielink before 15 January 2022.

In case you are offered a place in the bachelor's programme after completing the selection and once you are fully registered (including payment of the tuition fee) as a student at Maastricht University, you can request exemptions based on your previous education. The Board of Examiners will assess requests for credit transfer and will determine which courses you are exempted from. Important information regarding exemptions and how to apply for them can be found here.

Additional requirements

Language requirements English

As English is the language of instruction in this study programme, it is essential that your English language skills are good enough for you to undertake intensive and challenging academic courses that are taught and examined in English.

Answer the questions below to find out if you meet the language requirements.

Do you wish to apply for the English-language Psychology track?

YesNoUndo

Prospective students who received their prior education in a non-EU/EEA country (handling fee)

Prospective students applying for this study programme who received their prior education in a non-EU/EEA country will have to pay a handling fee. More information on this handling fee and how to arrange this payment can be found on the Handling fee page.

How do we assess your application?

When you want to apply or are applying for this study programme, it is useful to know how we assess your application. You can find more information about this here.

Fixus programme

The Bachelor in Psychology is a so-called fixus programme, this means that there is a limited number of places available. Below you will find more information on the selection procedure.

Selection procedure

The UM assesses your uploaded documents. You'll be informed by email whether you're admissible for the Selection procedure. If so, you'll be invited to participate in the selection procedure, which consists of an online questionnaire and online test. The invitation for the Selection will be sent in the week after the application deadline.

The Selection procedure covers the following subjects:

- motivation
- study attitude
- secondary education grades
- three video lectures
- digital literature
- an online test

The Selection procedure will take about 4 to 6 hours to complete.

You can do all of the parts online at a time that suits you. You must complete the Selection procedure before 24 February 2022, 17.00 CET. Make sure you start on time. You can complete the Selection procedure in parts and even go back to change your answers (except to the 'high school grades'). Please note: once you have submitted the Selection procedure, it cannot be changed and you cannot retake it.

More information on the Selection procedure and selection criteria for 2022-2023

Note: during the years, you have 3 selection attempts for this programme. Read more about selection attempts.

Assessment and ranking score

The criteria examined during your assessment are: your motivation, your knowledge and knowledge processing, your problem-solving ability, and self-reflection.

Based on the results the UM ranks the candidates. On 15 April 2022 you'll be informed about your ranking number via Studielink.

The allocation starts at the top of the ranking. Students who are offered a place, based on their ranking number, must confirm/accept their place in Studielink within 2 weeks.

Please also send a certified copy of your diploma (as soon as available) by regular post to:

Maastricht University Student Services Centre
UM Admissions
PO Box 616
6200 MD Maastricht
The Netherlands

Note: only complete applications will be assessed. We therefore recommend that you adhere to the deadlines provided in the table under 'Important deadlines for application to this study programme' on this page.

Selection attempts

Over the years you're allowed to participate in the Selection procedure for this programme up to three times (Selection attempts). Each year, one Selection procedure takes place.

A Selection attempt will be registered if:

- You've (had) an active application for the Bachelor in Psychology in Studielink after 15 January 2022.
- You don't complete the selection procedure and still have (had) an active application after 15 January 2022.
- You withdraw your application after 15 January 2022.

No selection attempt will be registered if:

- You withdraw your application in Studielink before 16 January 2022.

Note: In case you fail your final high school exams, the used-up selection attempt can be annulled. Please contact the Student Services Centre of UM about this.
