

Donna Yates

Donna Yates is an Associate Professor of Criminal Law and Criminology at Maastricht University. She is a member of the Trafficking Culture research consortium and has published widely on various aspects of the illicit trade in cultural objects. Along with Simon Mackenzie and Neil Brodie, she is the author of the recent monograph "Trafficking Culture" and she is currently the principal investigator on the European Research Council-funded project: "Trafficking Transformations: Objects as Agents in Transnational Criminal Networks", looking at the illicit movement of antiquities, fossils, and collectable wildlife.
