

Federico Nurra

Since 2018 digital data manager at the French National Institute of Art History (INHA, Paris), Federico Nurra previously worked at the French National Institute for Preventive Archaeological Research (Inrap), from 2015 to 2018, in charge of the scientific mediation of the NEARCH project and in charge of the developpement of the ARIADNE project. During the previous five years he has been a research fellow in the Department of Architecture, Design and Urban Planning (DADU) of the University of Sassari. His main research topics have been: development of the National Archaeological Spatial Data Infrastructure in Italy; design of Webmapping platforms; study of ancient landscapes and landscape transformations. He is author or co-author of several publications related to his research topics.