

Katharina Stoll

Katharina Stoll is a Senior Lead Auditor for Anti-Money Laundering and Sanctions at Commerzbank. She holds a Master's degree in Art History from the University of Frankfurt as well as PGCertificates from SOAS, University of London and the University of Glasgow. Before joining Commerzbank, Katharina worked at Protiviti as a Senior Consultant in Internal Audit, Bonhams in London, Poly Auction in Beijing, and Yves Siebers Auktionen in Stuttgart. In line with her current PhD studies at the University of Glasgow, Katharina's research is focused on money laundering in the art market, especially concerning the feasibility of AML practices as applied by financial services institutions for art market players. Katharina is a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (CAMS), and CAMS Audit certified. Through her specialization, Katharina uniquely combines her internal knowledge of the art market and her academic research with her extensive practical experience in AML cases, practices and typology.
