General requirements: previous education

The admission requirements for the academic year 2026-2027 for the master's programme in International Laws depend on your previous education.

Are you unsure whether you qualify for admission? Then we recommend that you apply via Studielink and complete your tasks in the MyApplication portal, so that the Board of Admissions can assess your application.

requirements, you must provide evidence of this in your application via your motivation letter and upload an explicit CV.

Important: The above provides only an indication of whether you qualify for admission and is not a guarantee. The selection of candidates is determined by assessing the various selection criteria that are mentioned on this webpage.

Language requirements for English-language master programmes

As English is the language of instruction in this study programme, it is essential that your English language skills are good enough for you to undertake intensive and challenging academic courses that are taught and examined in English.

There are several ways to prove your English proficiency:

- ⦿ You hold a bachelor's or master's degree in which English was the sole language of instruction.
- ⦿ During your bachelor's or master's degree, you successfully completed English-taught courses. The Board of Admissions will decide if the number of English-taught courses you completed is sufficient.
- ⦿ With language test certificates (not older than two years):
 - Academic IELTS: minimum overall score 6.5 and writing 6.5, or minimum overall score 7
 - TOEFL iBT: minimum overall score 90 and writing 25, or minimum overall score 100
 - TOEIC listening and reading: 720; speaking and writing: 310
 - Cambridge Advanced C1: Grade C (scale 180-184); First: Grade A (scale 180-184)
 - TOEFL Paper-delivered Test: Reading: 20-30; Listening: 20-30; Writing: 20-30 (We recommend taking one of the other tests listed above, as speaking skills are not assessed in this TOEFL test)

Applicants whose diploma is based on a non-EU-EEA curriculum (handling fee)

Applicants for this study programme whose diploma is based on a non-EU/EEA curriculum are required to pay a handling fee. This applies even if the educational institution is located within the EU/EEA, as the fee is based on the curriculum, not the location of the institution. More information on this handling fee and how to arrange this payment can be found on the handling fee page.

Documents required for application process

During the application process for this study programme, you will need to complete a number of tasks for which you will often have to upload documents. The list below gives you an insight into what documents you will (and might) need to prepare.

Please note: All documents must be in Dutch, English or German.

While applications are checked on a rolling basis, completed applications are generally reviewed by the Board of Admissions at two points in the year. The first is in February (both EU and non-EU) and the second in May for non-EU applicants or June for EU applicants.
