

IGIR Seminars (2025/2026)

22 September: Belén Gracia (IGIR)

Regulating an inclusive less plastics-dependent economy. Understanding inclusion in the context of the Plastics Treaty negotiations.

20 October: Kaili Jiang (IGIR)

Intellectual Property Law and New Genomic Techniques: Shaping Innovation and Access in Plant Breeding

27 October: Tom Vos (ICGI, Law & Tech Lab) (ICGI-IGIR Joint Seminar)

The reflection period as a defensive measure for boards of Dutch listed companies: the good, the bad, or the useless?

17 November: Georgia Chapoupi (IGIR)

The Role of European Competition Law in an Internet of Things Enabled World: Addressing Anti-competitive Behaviour and Access Obligations under Article 102 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

1 December (16.00): Lucia Jeremiašová (ICGI) (ICGI-IGIR Joint Seminar)

Using Shareholder Rights to Enhance Corporate Sustainability

15 December: Clara Weinhardt (FASoS)

Embedded geopoliticization: The EU's global trade strategy in an age of challenged multilateralism

19 January: Ranchun Wang (University of Groningen)

ESG Reporting in the EU, the US, and China: A Comparative Legal Analysis

29 January: Mariam Aroian (IGIR guest researcher) (extra IGIR seminar)

Architecture and Copyright in the Age of AI Culture

9 February: Paula Roldán (SBE, IGIR)

A Framework for Understanding the Optimal Use of Economic Evidence in Competition Law Enforcement

18 March: Constantijn van Aartsen (ICGI, IGIR) (ICGI-IGIR Joint Seminar)
Value creation and the role of firms in society

13 April: Gabriele Cifrodelli (IGIR)
Breaking the vicious cycle: A study on the interaction between intellectual property and knowledge commons in AI-powered drug discovery

11 May: Kris Wauters (Université Catholique de Louvain) (GLawNet-IGIR Joint Seminar)
Convergence between nuclear law and environmental / climate law